Plenary Speakers

Maureen Walker, Ph.D.
“Healing Power, Creating Hope”

In her presentation, Dr. Walker will examine the impact of power paradigms on growth and creativity, identify the relational competencies that foster expanded imagination of human possibility, and illustrate the healing processes (e.g., mutual empathy) that facilitate transformational shifts in power-salient relationships. She will use case vignettes from her teaching, therapy, and supervisory practices to illustrate concepts.

Dr. Maureen Walker is a licensed psychologist with an independent practice in psychotherapy and multicultural consultation in Cambridge, Massachusetts. She is Director of Program Development at the Jean Baker Miller Training Institute of the Stone Center at Wellesley College, as well as an Associate Director in MBA Support Services.

In addition to her clinical practice and publications, Dr. Walker has taught courses and workshops in career psychology and vocational development, developing multicultural competencies, and relational-cultural practice in organizations. Other teaching and publication projects involve exploring linkages between racial identity development and relational development, constructions of power in organizational settings, as well as the interface of faith, social justice, and relational practice.

Dr. Walker completed her graduate training in psychology at Georgia State University and the University of Texas at Austin. The author of several working papers in the Stone Center Works in Progress Series, Dr. Walker has also written several articles and textbook chapters and is co-editor of two books: How Connections Heal and The Complexity of Connection.
