

Celebrating Our Past, Embracing the Present, Proclaiming the Future

ACPE ACADEMY FOR CONTINUING EDUCATION Wednesday Morning Sessions, February 8th, 9am–12pm

Center for Management Studies: Management 103

The Best Laid Plans – the Process of Why, What & How in Strategic Planning

If you are a new, experienced or seasoned manager, with strategic planning responsibilities, this workshop is for you. As a workshop participant, you will gain an understanding of the importance of strategic planning. You will learn what it takes to develop an effective plan, and leave with a strategic planning process template that you can use. At the end of the workshop you will know the why, what and how of strategic planning.

Faculty: Adela Raffa is progressing toward a MSW at Kennesaw State University Georgia, is a Licentiate in Sacred Healing (S.H.L.) and a Registered Corporate Coach (RCC). Richard Thorne has a Master's in Labor and Industrial Relations from Michigan State University, a BA in Psychology from Wheaton College (Illinois) and is a Registered Corporate Coach (RCC).

Leadership Forum 130

Seminaries and ACPE Partners in Education: The Past, the Present and the Future

This workshop will consist of a panel of persons who will share their perspectives on what ACPE has done in the past that has been helpful and not helpful for their seminaries as well as what seminaries have done that have been helpful or not helpful to ACPE, share their current innovative paradigms for integrating CPE in seminary education and spin their wish lists for future partnerships. Presentations will emphasize seminaries that are accredited ACPE Centers, those that require or embed/offer CPE as part of their seminary curricula (masters and/or doctoral levels) and centers that have tailored their curricula to meet the specific needs of the seminaries. Some material will be shared from seminaries/persons unable to be present on the panel.

Faculty: Rev. Dr. Jan McCormack, Director, Chaplaincy and Pastoral Counseling Programs and ACPE Supervisory Education Student, Denver Seminary (Co-Convener); Rev. Jenny Lannom, CPE Supervisor, Board of Representatives, shepherd of Organizational Relationships (Co-Convener); Rev. Amy Greene, Supervisory Education & DMin Student, Ecumenical Theological Seminary; Rev. Kenton Derstine, Director, Mentored Ministry Programs and CPE Supervisor, Eastern Mennonite Seminary; Rev. Laurie Garrett-Cobbina, Shaw Family Chair for Clinical Pastoral Education and CPE Supervisor, San Francisco Theological Seminary.

Celebrating Our Past, Embracing the Present, Proclaiming the Future

ACPE ACADEMY FOR CONTINUING EDUCATION Wednesday Afternoon Sessions, February 8th, 1pm–4pm

Center for Management Studies: Management 203

Managing Others Starts with You

This highly participatory and practical workshop is virtually guaranteed to improve your management success. If you have people reporting to you, people you develop, lead and manage, this workshop is for you. As a participant in this workshop, you will become more aware of how your actions affect others. You will have the opportunity to learn about, observe and directly experience management techniques that can be used to increase your effectiveness as a manager. You will leave this workshop having added new, practical and implementable tactics to your management skill set.

Faculty: Adela Raffa is progressing toward a MSW at Kennesaw State University (Georgia), is a Licentiate in Sacred Healing (S.H.L.) and a Registered Corporate Coach (RCC). Richard Thorne has a Master's in Labor and Industrial Relations from Michigan State University, a BA in Psychology from Wheaton College (Illinois) and is a Registered Corporate Coach (RCC).

Leadership Forum 131/Teaching and Supervisory Arts 120

Discerning Strong Applicants for CPE Supervisory Education

A piloted Discernment Unit for Supervisory CPE was created to test one aspect of the emerging theory of Supervisory Wisdom in ACPE. Through this pilot, we continue the process of learning what to emphasize in selecting SESs. Discerning and developing gifts for Supervisory Education is very important to the future development of ACPE, and so to the future of multicultural pastoral supervision. We will be embracing our present and proclaiming our future!

Faculty: Rev. Judy Ragsdale, Ph.D, Director of Education and Research, Department of Pastoral Care, Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center and Rev. Marla Coulter-McDonald, M.Div., BCC, Manager of Chaplaincy and Pastoral Education, Indiana University Health North Hospital.

A Curiosity for Life Coaching

If you have any curiosity at all about coaching, ACPE created this opportunity for you to experience coaching and dialogue with the world's first Master Certified Coach. Come hear how and why coaching is making such a huge impact in people's lives. Find out how to obtain a coaching certificate or credential. Or maybe you want to increase coaching competency and learn more about what three customized coach training programs ACPE is offering.

Bonus: You will be guided to discover your life purpose, your context for meaningful choices, your best way of making your unique contribution to enrich results and wellbeing for you and those you serve. All this in a few hours. Be prepared to explore, experience, and expand.

Your facilitator feels blessed and excited to be with you in the exploration of purposeful living and coaching. Teri-E Belf, M.A., C.A.G.S., M.C.C., brings 20+ years as a coach, spiritual mentor and coach trainer, and was instrumental in launching the foundation of the profession. As an ambassador for coaching, she has taught in universities, delivered hundreds of presentations, is a frequent media guest, and avid writer – Coaching With Spirit and Facilitating Life Purpose.