The ACPE Accreditation Commission acted to involuntarily withdraw accreditation from Northwestern Lake Forest Hospital, Lake Forest, Illinois effective November 13, 2013. The center was notified of the action via certified mail November 25, 2013. At that time the center was offered the opportunity to respond or make comments about the action.

The center was on inactive status for three years. It did not file an annual report, pay the annual accreditation fee, or respond to the July 26, 2013 notification of possible action.

As of January 9, 2014, the center has not responded or offered comments.
